Why is YouTube TV not working? {Customer Help Support}

YouTube TV may not be working +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} because of an unstable internet connection, an outdated app or device,+1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} incorrect location settings, or a temporary problem with the +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} device or network. YouTube TV recommends checking that your Home Area and Current playback area are correct, restarting your device and router,+1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} updating the YouTube TV app and device software, and reinstalling the app if necessary. For streaming, YouTube TV recommends at least 3 Mbps +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} for standard-definition viewing, while around 13 Mbps is +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} recommended for reliable HD streaming.

+1 (866) 381-7244

1. Why is YouTube TV buffering or constantly loading?
Buffering is often caused by a slow or unstable +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} internet connection. YouTube TV recommends checking your connection and reducing the video quality if necessary. For standard-definition +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} streaming, YouTube TV recommends at least 3 Mbps, while HD streaming generally works more reliably with 13 Mbps or more. Restarting your router +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} and device can also help resolve temporary connection problems.

2. Why is YouTube TV not working on my smart TV?
If YouTube TV is not working on your +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} smart TV, first restart the television by powering it off and waiting about 30 seconds before turning it back on. Next, check for available system and YouTube TV +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} app updates. If the problem continues, uninstall and reinstall the YouTube TV app and sign in again. YouTube also recommends checking another +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} app on the same TV to determine whether the problem +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} affects the device generally or only YouTube TV.

3. Why does YouTube TV say my location is incorrect?
YouTube TV uses your Home Area +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} and Current playback area to determine which content and local channels are available. If your location information is incorrect, open the YouTube +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} TV app and go to your profile picture, then Location,+1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} and review the listed areas. If your current playback location needs updating, +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} YouTube TV provides a verification +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} process that uses your device's location.

4. Why is YouTube TV not working on my phone or computer?
On a phone, try closing and +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} reopening the YouTube TV app, restarting the device, checking your internet +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} connection, and installing the latest app and operating-system updates. On a computer, restart the browser and computer, update the browser, and +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} check your internet connection. YouTube TV also+1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} recommends Chrome for the best experience on computers.

5. What should I do if YouTube TV still isn't working after troubleshooting?

If basic troubleshooting does not resolve +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} the problem, check the official YouTube TV Help Center for the specific error or issue. You can also try watching on another supported device to +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} determine whether the problem is device-specific. If the issue continues, +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} YouTube TV's Help Center provides options to get support and report problems.